Announce Plans For Expansion Of Local Industry

National Pants Company Will Boost Output

Three Plants Of Company To Be Combined In New Castle Factory

LARGE FLOOR SPACE IS ADDED HERE

Greater New Castle Association Announces Negotiations Have Been Completed

Substantial expansion of the New Castle plant of the National Pants company was officially announced this afternoon by the Greater New Castle Association.

Confirmations Reports
The news, released by Association officers, brought confirmation to rumors, current for weeks, that an operating expansion was under consideration.

At the same time the statement definitely disposed of any possibility that the concern would locate its plant elsewhere.

Statement Released
Issued by Norman E. Clark, president of the Greater New Castle Association, the complete statement read:

"This action means that two other plants of the company, one at Washington, D. C., the other at Pottsville, Ind., will be abandoned and all activities of the firm concentrated in New Castle.

Will Add Force

"In order to carry forward this expansion program it will be necessary for the National Pants company to add between 75 and 100 persons to their present force of employees which will bring the total number employed at the local plant to between 400 and 450 persons. The new arrangement will increase the present annual payroll of $225,000 to between $300,000 and $350,000. The increased operation will require the use of the entire floor space in the factory building now occupied by the National Pants company on the Butler road or an additional 12,500 square feet now occupied by Fisher Brothers.

"During the past several months larger cities have extended attractive offers to the National Pants (Continued On Page Two)

PA NEW OBSERVES

Large trucking firms, instead of numbering their trucks, often designate them by names, the same way in which Pullman cars are named. For the most part, the names are of women, like "Miss Frances," etc. One New Castle firm calls its trucks by the names of the cities where it has branches. One of the largest is called "Miss New Castle." One hardy associate of a big truck with a female, but they almost invariably are called Miss.

Despite the fact that the city and W. P. A. carried out an extensive project during the past year for replacing of bad sidewalks, there are still a considerable number around the city that are in need of repair.

Last night was probably the mildest for January 5 that has been experienced in this locality in many years. It was as balmy as spring.

Thawing temperatures, coupled with rain which fell late yesterday resulted in a rise of a foot and a half in the Shenango river during the night.

William Ice Gives Impressions Of Air Trip To Southland

From a vivid description of the Sunny South Land as reported by William Ice, local pilot now winging his way to Miami, Florida, most anyone would like to be his passenger in the airplane.

Identity of the passenger in the local pilot's plane was revealed today in a dispatch posted in Charleston, South Carolina. Mrs. W. P. Ice, mother of the pilot is the passenger, and she is reported to be having a wonderful time.

A bird's eye view of the South as given by Ice in his letter follows:

Tells Of Trip
Left Richmond at 8:10 a. m., January 3, and flew over the campus of the University of Richmond, but due to the heavy ground fog only the tower of chimneys was visible poking its head through the mist.

Passed over Petersburg, Va., at 9:10 a. m. There are now almost 200 airplanes in the group. We pass over many giant storage houses, filled undoubtedly with tobacco. The Southern type plantations are now starting to appear. The owners homes are large white mansions, flanked by the small slave and servant quarters in the rear.

Pass over many old fire places, all that remains of former mansions that have burned.

The convoy landed at Warrenton at 9:45 o'clock. The ground fog has (Continued On Page Two)

New Congress Takes Recess Over Week-End

Brief Period Asked To Shape Legislation For Huge Propositions In Sight

STORMY SESSIONS CERTAIN FOR MONTHS

President's Messages Line Up Work For Congress For Long Period

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The new congress was in recess today over the week-end while the harassed leaders labored to gear the machinery to grind out the enormous burden of work and responsibility President Roosevelt has imposed upon them.

In two very brief legislative days, Mr. Roosevelt has given congress work enough to occupy it for six months, much of it enmeshed in political controversy, with more to come.

Nine Billion Budget

There is the $9,000,000,000 budget to wrestle with; an $875,000,000 emergency appropriation which must be made within a month if more than 3,000,000 WPA workers are not to be laid off; a $1,300,000,000 armament program coming up; presidential suggestions for new taxes to finance this armament bill and agricultural aid; Mr. Roosevelt's expressed desire to scrap existing neutrality legislation; the extension of many expiring depression-born emergency acts; and a raft of nominations to consider, including a supreme court and two new cabinet officers.

All this the president dumped into the lap of congress in two days, leaving to the leadership the job of working out the details and writing the legislation. He said, in effect: "You carry the ball."

Recess Is Taken

After a hasty survey of the situation, with a greatly augmented Republican minority eager to make critical speeches, the Democratic leaders hastily decided to recess over the week-end until they can get their bearings and map out procedure. At that, they didn't act quickly enough to prevent Senator Bridges, (Continued On Page Two)

LIGHTS OF CARS BLINDED DRIVER

Joseph Russo, aged 66, of 108 South Wayne street, retired P. & L. E. railroad employe, was killed almost instantly about 11:30 o'clock Thursday night when struck by an automobile driven by Edward L. Strawhecker of R. F. D. No. 7, near the end of Cherry street extension, on the West Pittsburg road.

Russo was walking in the direction of West Pittsburg just at the edge of the concrete, and Strawhecker, according to the statements made to State Motor Policemen F. W. Gentilman and Coroner Charles Piper Byers, was traveling in the same direction. Strawhecker stated that he was blinded by the lights of approaching automobiles and failed to see Russo until he was almost directly upon him. Strawhecker said that he tried to swerve his car toward the center of the road but was unable to get over enough to avoid striking Russo because of the traffic coming from the opposite direction.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 6.—Barring congressional disagreement western Pennsylvania will probably receive between $10,000,000 and $11,000,000 for flood control work for the fiscal year of 1940, it was revealed in reliable sources today.

Last year this district received an appropriation of approximately $10,000,000 and if the work is to continue at the present rate, a highly reliable authority told International News Service, this year's appropriation for the tri-state area will have to be even higher.

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Border, Jan. 6.—Government troops are flooding the rich Urgel plains of Catalonia in a desperate attempt to halt the advance of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's insurgent forces, a Saragossa announcement stated today.

Insurgent authorities claimed the government was opening the sluice gates of canals to inundate the Catalan battlefield and ease the pressure being brought relentlessly against the defenders of Barcelona.

Despite the reported government tactics, however, the insurgents claimed their advance in Catalonia, aimed at dealing the government a final blow to end the war, was succeeding and that their troops had "spread like oil" over government territory during the past twenty-four hours.

President Confers On Defense Plans With His Advisers

By ROBERT G. NIXON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Determined to make America's military arm so strong that no combination of totalitarian powers will dare launch a sudden attack against the Western Hemisphere, President Roosevelt today held a last minute series of conferences with his chief army, navy and diplomatic advisers.

The conferences heralded a swift re-vamping of defense plans, in the light of grave new developments in Europe and Asia, before sending to congress the most momentous national defense message since the World War.

Defense Message Coming

It was indicated authoritatively that the special defense message probably will not now be sent to congress until Thursday.

Warning again of the fate that has befallen China, Czechoslovakia, Austria and Ethiopia, the president's message will detail the need for a special defense fund of $500,000,000. (Continued On Page Two)

Senator Eroo Home; Discusses Senate Organization Vote

After the most exciting session of the Pennsylvania State Senate in half a century, State Senator William J. Eroo, Jr., who represents Lawrence and Beaver county in Harrisburg, arrived home Thursday night, satisfied that he had done the right thing in voting for the election of Frederick T. Gelder as president pro-tem of the state senate.

"I voted for Gelder, a Republican, because I thought it was the right thing to do," said Senator Eroo. "I am a Democrat, registered and elected as such, but first of all I am an American and believe in the American principles of fair play."

"If the face of the returns can be taken for what they appear to be the people of Pennsylvania said they wanted the Republican party to be in control of the state government for the next four years. If that is true, and I believe it is, then the only way the Republican administration can function properly is to give them control of both the House and Senate. Will Examine New Deal Laws

Extensive Hearings Before Congress Committees Are Now Forecast

MAJOR FEATURES TO BE REVIEWED

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Administration leaders in congress, heading the recommendations of President Roosevelt in his annual message, today pledged a "full review and complete examination" of major new deal laws.

Refusing to forecast definite changes, they urged that committees prepare for extensive hearings during which bureau chiefs and the general public will be called to express their views.

Laws To Be Examined

Major new deal laws slated for close examination include:
1. Wagner labor relations act. Outcome uncertain in view of bitter A. F. of L. and CIO battle.
2. AAA of 1938. While Secretary of Agriculture Wallace defends farm program, agricultural committees will consider both revision and new plan.
3. Wage and hour law. Only minor modifications, if any, are foreseen by members of senate and house labor committees.
4. Transportation laws. Senate and house interstate commerce committee. (Continued On Page Two)

Three Alleged Smugglers Taken

Estimate $150,000 Contraband Opium Is Seized On Brooklyn Waterfront

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Three alleged smugglers were captured today with an estimated $150,000 in contraband opium after a spectacular gun battle on the Brooklyn waterfront in which a policeman was wounded.

The three suspects whose arrest culminated four months of undercover work were booked as Luigi Esposito, 42; Frank Visiano, 49; and Salvatore Luso, 42. They may be held to hold off a small army of federal agents, detectives and uniformed patrolmen for half an hour during which 200 shots were fired. The surrender came after Patrolman James Butte, 31, was struck by a bullet.

The capture was engineered by Detective Everett Roney of the Kings county racket squad who wormed his way into the confidence of the men by living with them for four months. He "arranged" for them to bring in the opium this morning after previously leaving the groundwork for a "bitch" to a harbor squad sergeant working with Roney. He was promised $5,000 at Roney's suggestion for permitting the men to land their cargo on the Brooklyn shore after taking it over the water from Hoboken where it had been brought aboard the Ida, an Italian ship.

CHUST, Ruthenia, Jan. 6.—Fighting between Hungarian and Ruthenian border guards near Munkacs was still under way at 5 p. m. today (H. a. m. E. S. T.), according to a communique issued by the Ruthenian military authorities at Chust.

Blame Hungarians

Prague, Jan. 6.—Hungarian terrorists, and not Czechs or Ukrainians, precipitated the bloody border clash at Munkacs today, it was charged in official circles here today.

The Hungarians launched an onslaught against the new Ruthenian border, it was alleged, compelling Czech frontier guards to retaliate.

Budapest, Jan. 6.—An attempt by Czechoslovak troops and Ukrainian terrorists to seize the thriving town of Munkacs (Mukacevo) precipitated bloody warfare on the Ruthenian-Hungarian border today.

Many civilians were reported killed and wounded when regular Czech batteries, posted on the hills overlooking the town, opened up a second heavy bombardment of Munkacs at 2:40 p. m. (H. a. m. E. S. T.).

Speed Of Sending "News Tips" On Outbreak Of Fire Causes Suspicion

FOUR PERSONS DIE IN TENEMENT FIRE

(New York News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—A pudgy, unemployed elevator operator with a police record, arrested through his eagerness in telephoning "news tips" to newspapers, was held today on suspicion of starting a spectacular tenement fire in which four persons perished.

The suspect, Joseph Malone, 27, denied starting the fire, said Fire Marshal Thomas P. Brophy, but the account he gave of his activities at the scene of the blaze warranted his arrest on a charge of suspicion of homicidal arson, Brophy explained.

Sought News Tip Fees
Malone had excitedly watched firemen battle the blaze and then remained on the scene comforting survivors, police said. He had given a supporting arm to William Le Clair, 55, when the latter collapsed upon learning that his wife, Anna, 52, was one of the victims.

Brophy said Malone telephoned two newspapers a "tip" on the fire, explaining he happened to be passing and noticed the flames, but so carefully had the time of these calls been noted that it was established they were made only a few seconds after the blaze broke out, according to the marshal. After making these calls, apparently in the hope of obtaining $5 rewards offered by the newspapers, according to Brophy, Malone telephoned Le Clair's relatives informing them of the tragedy. He was turned over to District Attorney Thomas Dewey for prosecution.

They held a conference which lasted more than two hours. Immediately afterward the same group, reinforced by army and navy officers of high rank and members of the civil aeronautics authority, held a further conference in the office of Assistant Secretary of War Louis Johnson.

Further conferences are scheduled for today and next week. Top-ranking army and navy aviation officers from air bases throughout the nation have been summoned to Washington.

BRITISH PREMIER WILL VISIT ROME IN COMING WEEK

the Rome visit. At these meetings, it is expected, a decision will be formulated regarding the future course of British foreign policy.

Well-informed quarters predicted that Chamberlain's dramatic endorsement of the anti-dictatorship utterances voiced by President Roosevelt before congress may gravely jeopardize the prime minister's plans for speedy "appeasement" of the dictators.

London diplomatic circles expressed belief that the unprecedented action taken yesterday by Chamberlain may prevent his forthcoming Rome conversations with Premier Mussolini from achieving the results the British "flying premier" expects.

Situation Is Changed

Previously it had been expected that President Roosevelt's message to congress might strengthen Chamberlain's hand for his talks with Mussolini. But the prime minister's own statement has now placed matters in a new light.

Diplomats pointed out that the Nazis, who hitherto have refrained from abusing Chamberlain, are now expected to regard him definitely in the opposition camp—and act accordingly.

It is believed here that Germany may even bring pressure upon the Italian government to confront Chamberlain with a series of "impossible demands" designed to wreck his talks with Il Duce.

International News Service learned that Chamberlain, who for months has sought to quell the dictators by "appeasement," was fully aware of these possible consequences when he issued his statement.

While the statement was issued on Chamberlain's own responsibility, he released it only after serious reflection and consultation with his colleagues. Therefore, according to authoritative sources, it reflects the hardening British attitude toward the dictator powers.

tees plan extensive hearings on railroad and other transportation problems.

5. Social security act. House ways and means committee plans early hearings on revision of act.
6. Neutrality act. President Roosevelt's declaration that "you can't legislate neutrality" spurred demands for changes or repeal of the existing act.

Review Is Needed

"I believe that we should review and examine most all of these new Deal laws such as the Wagner act and others," said Rep. Sam Rayburn, Democratic leader of the house.

The administration is expected to present its own program for expansion of the National defense, as well as its relief program both for the rest of the present fiscal year and for the next fiscal year.

Mr. Roosevelt's statement on taxation, in which he avoided a demand for increases, gave credence to reports that the treasury will seem merely continuation of the nuisance and undistributed profits taxes. A possible major tax fight is seen in consideration of Mr. Roosevelt's former recommendation for reciprocal taxation of state and federal bonds and salaries of employees.

New deal congressional leaders agreed that the president had invited congress to "carry the ball" by itself in consideration of changes in far-reaching experimental legislation. They asserted that congress will meet the responsibility by thorough consideration of demands for changes or repeal of the acts.

New Hampshire Republican, from making a stinging floor attack on the nomination of Harry L. Hopkins as secretary of commerce; and Rep. Gifford (R) of Massachusetts, exhorting Mr. Roosevelt's nine billion dollar budget.

Next week the sound and fury will begin in earnest, with this budget and the new $875,000,000 relief bill bearing the brunt of the attack from Republicans and the more conservative Democrats.

To Attack New Deal

Republicans old and new are bulging with speeches tearing into the spending policies of the new deal, as outlined in Mr. Roosevelt's two messages this week. They feel they have a real issue there, and they plan to make the most of it. They expect and will get a considerable degree of support from the anti-new dealers. If they get enough they will be in a position to pass down some of the president's policies.

The size of the new relief bill for the remaining months of the fiscal year (ending June 30) almost look the breath of the Democrats as well as the Republicans.

Eight hundred and seventy-five million dollars was a lot more than anyone expected. Even Democratic leaders close to the White House estimated as late as last week no more than $700,000,000 would be asked, and some had thought it could be trimmed to a half a billion.

There is going to be a sign-bang fight over this issue, with the Republicans making the most of the Sheppard committee's report, which found and condemned the injection of relief into politics during the last campaign. They are going to try, too, to decentralize relief and pass some of the responsibility for expenditure back to the states and local governments.

The nine billion dollar budget also means a fight of cyclonic proportions.

Judging from the tempers displayed during the first few days of the meeting, this session is going to be the most acrimonious one of the new deal. Party lines are more closely drawn, for one thing.

The president has given the ball to congress, but he may be compelled yet to re-enter the game in his role of "quarter-back"—that is, if there is to be any scoring.

BLOODY GLASH ON HUNGARIAN BORDER TODAY

large shells had been hurled into Munkacs, wrecking a motion picture theatre, partially destroying a hotel and damaging a number of houses.

The battle apparently resulted from a determined attempt by Czechs and Ukrainians to capture Munkacs, a former Ruthenian town at the apex of a wedge of territory ceded to Hungary under the Munich agreement.

Foray Began

The foray began with an attempt by Czech troops and Ukrainians to enter Munkacs with a detachment of armored cars. When Magyar border guards repelled them on the outskirts, the artillery opened fire at noon. Four Hungarian officers and five soldiers were reported killed in the first encounter.

More than two hours and a half later, the Czech batteries opened up again, wrecking a number of additional buildings and allegedly causing heavy civilian casualties. Details were meagre owing to action of military authorities in sealing up the town. Civilians were not permitted to leave and all dispatches were heavily censored.

Incident Provoked

Hungarian authorities charged the Czechs had deliberately provoked the incident by crossing the new frontier, which has not yet been finally delimited, in motor trucks and armored cars.

For some time there has been dissatisfaction among Czechs and Ukrainians over the award of Munkacs to Hungary. This town and territory immediately south of it was given to Hungary under a supplement to the Munich accord signed in Vienna on Nov. 2.

Hungarian official reports stated the terrorists chose today for their forcible attempts to seize the town, for this is the day of epiphany, a religious holiday on which Hungarian guards were reduced to skeleton forces.

A rapidly organized and spirited defense spoiled the Czech plans, it was said. The invaders were repulsed on the outskirts and prevented from crossing the Latorca river, Munkacs' natural fortification.

It was when the foray definitely failed that Czech batteries opened fire on the town from the hillsides. Hungarian officials stoutly maintained that Magyar troops played nothing more than a "defensive role" against Czech aggressors.

SENATOR EROE HOME; DISCUSSES SENATE ORGANIZATION VOTE

to elect a Democrat as president pro-tem of the Senate would be to hamstring Arthur H. James as governor and I am more interested in the welfare of my state than I am in the personal ambitions of Democratic politicians. Therefore I voted for Frederick T. Gelder, the Republican."

"Many Silly Stories"

"There have been many silly, vapid stories afloat since the election of Gelder as president pro-tem, among them the story that I sold out the Democratic party. Nothing is farther from the truth. I was merely endeavoring to put into force the will of the people of Pennsylvania as expressed in the election on November 8. The fact that I am a Democratic senator is not important in this particular instance for I was elected in a year when the Democrats triumphed. The people wanted a Democratic rule then and I conducted myself accordingly. Today the picture has changed, the people have elected a Republican state administration and I believe the governor should have every opportunity to make good his pledges to the people."

"Voted Convictions"

"The scene in the senate chamber on the night of January 3 was a disgraceful scene. Both Republicans and Democrats were milling around in an effort to gain some personal or political advantage for themselves. In the midst of this political whirlwind I endeavored to keep my head and vote my convictions and that is exactly what I did, and nothing more. There were no promises made and no return for what I did, nor did I expect any."

"In the election of the employees of the Senate I voted with the Democrats. After all, the Republicans are going to have thousands of jobs to fill after January 17 and the few jobs in the Senate are inconsequential in comparison. I wanted to help the men who have been working there and so voted with my own party. In this respect it was a matter of patronage, a political affair."

In the matter of electing a president pro-tem I have something to say. It was a matter of helping and broadening. It was a matter of holding up the hands of the incoming governor and assist him in giving the people of Pennsylvania the best possible government. In this instance I choose the interests of the state over any political obligation.

"So far as the seating of the three Republicans who were held out on January 3, I am in favor of seating them and will so vote on January 17 when the Senate meets again. They have been regularly elected and certified and I see no reason for denying them the seats they have been lawfully chosen to fill."

"As for my action in voting for Gelder, I have no apologies. I am coming months will demonstrate that I was right. I am convinced, for I still believe the Republicans should have full responsibility in organizing the legislative branches to the end that they may take full credit for good legislation or stand convicted for bad legislation."

Injunction On Thompson Act

Enforcement Of Law On Transmission Of Race Gambling Is Held Up

RADIO STATION GETS INJUNCTION

(BULLETIN)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 6.—The Dauphin county court today issued an injunction banning enforcement of the Thompson act forbidding the transmission of horse race track gambling over private wires.

The decision came on a plea by station WCAU of Philadelphia which claimed enforcement of the act would interfere with its interstate business and harm it financially. The court pointed out that "this bill raises serious constitutional question, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case we think that the status should be preserved until final judgement."

"This injunction shall continue," the court added, "until the final decree of the court."

Specifically the court order "restrained the Bell Telephone... from exacting from the plaintiffs any contracts which require, directly or indirectly, compliance with the act in question, and restraining the public utility commission... from attempting to enforce the said act against either the Bell Telephone Company or any of the plaintiffs for failure to enter into the contracts prescribed in the act."

British Premier Puzzles Nazis

Approval Of Roosevelt's Message Causes Profound Impression In Germany

By PIERRE J. HUSS

International News Service Staff

BERLIN, Jan. 6.—The unexpected action of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain in endorsing President Roosevelt's message to congress condemning dictatorships caused a profound impression in Germany.

There was a studied attempt on the part of Nazi officialdom to prove that despite surface indications, the British premier has not receded from his position of collaboration with the totalitarian states.

The foreign office itself endeavored to picture Chamberlain as "mis-taken" in his interpretation of Mr. Roosevelt's remarks.

"Mr. Chamberlain apparently reads into the message something entirely different from what we read," a spokesman said. "However, we doubt whether Mr. Chamberlain interpreted the president correctly or that Mr. Roosevelt really meant what Mr. Chamberlain believes him to have said."

It was assumed in well-informed circles that Chamberlain's pronouncement would be certain to play a decisive role in current consultations among London, Rome and Berlin with regard to the premier's forthcoming conference with Benito Mussolini.

FIRMS SHARE BID

(International News Service)

YAKIMA, Wash.—Faced with the problem of holding two attractive bids for the same amount on a municipal project, Yakima city commissioners decided to flip a coin to decide the winner. The two firms settled the argument by agreeing to split the contract on a fifty-fifty basis.

On Sept. 1, 1923, an earthquake destroyed 600,000 homes and partially wrecked 126,000 others in Japan. The same disaster claimed 99,331 lives, injured 103,733 persons, and 43,476 persons were reported missing.

It also will probe the student's personality and temperament.

Using a "temperament scale," instructors will learn whether a girl is an introvert, or an extrovert. Thus, if a timid or bashful student desires to follow a career which would necessitate meeting a large number of strangers, she could be directed to other work more suitable to her personality.

COLUMBIA, Mo.—There will be no more haphazard studying at Stephens college, if the girls take advantage of the new course in Vocational Orientation to be inaugurated this fall.

The new study is designed to discover the abilities of each student and if they are suitable for the career she wishes to follow after college.

In the days of the Mayflower only the people who belonged to the class of gentlemen in England, ministers, physicians, and their wives were entitled to the prefix Mr. and Mrs. to their names. If a man or woman was below the condition of gentility, but above that of a servant, the title used by way of address was "goodman" or "goodwife."

surd. Nevertheless, they want to restore, so far as it can be done, harmony in the Democratic party so that in 1940 it will name a ticket and adopt a platform which the great bulk of Democrats can support. There will be plenty of excitement this session. There will be some lovely rows, but the men who hold the power will wield it with the view of keeping down party friction rather than promoting it.

THEY may not be successful, but that is the idea. There is to be no more blind following of the Roosevelt leadership but, on the other hand, there will be no slapping of Mr. Roosevelt in the face. Nothing could more surely react in his favor than that. Senator Harrison declined to let his friends push Senator Barkley aside in the Democratic caucus the other day and make him official leader, because he wanted to be wholly independent of the White House. But that does not mean he will oppose every Administration tax proposal or refuse cooperative treasury gestures.

NOR will Mr. Garner become the anti-administration leader whom the Republicans can follow. That isn't the way these two veteran Democrats play the game at all. Way back in their minds is the conviction that through this session and the next reconciliation must go hand in hand with control, to the end that when the 1940 Democratic convention finally acts, Mr. Roosevelt will have no sound excuse for refusal to support the Democratic ticket.

Bridge Site Is To Be Surveyed

Another step towards the installation of a bridge across the Slippery Rock Creek to replace the Harris bridge which collapsed over a year ago, was announced today by Highway Superintendent John B. Efforts At Silk Producing Have Proved Fruitless

(International News Service)

ITHACA, N. Y.—Little or no success is in store for would-be producers of raw silk in the United States, it was stated recently by officials of the New York State College of Agriculture at Cornell university. Many persons have written asking if there is any opportunity in the growing of mulberry trees and the feeding of silk worms.

Most inquiries have been from elderly persons in metropolitan centers, and interest is attributed possibly to silk-boughts and to the belief that silk could be produced here.

"Our native mulberry, and several other species, have been tried for feeding silkworms, but with little success in America," Prof. M. B. Hoffman of the pomology department at Cornell stated.

Great Effort Made

"No greater effort was ever made in the history of the country to develop any branch of agriculture than was made to start a silk industry. It started about 1630.

Hundreds of trees were imported from China; some little silk was produced, but the whole venture proved to be a failure.

"Those mulberry trees on which the silk worms fed were not hardy in the northern part of the United States, and all winter-killed. In the south, the trees lived, but the worms did not seem to thrive and failed to produce silk in anything like satisfactory quantities. The attempt to build a silk industry lasted about 200 years. Fortunes of many thrifty men were wrecked in bankruptcy."

'Torso Murderer' Hunted On Coast

Writes To Cleveland Police And Sets Them At Ease, Now Coast Officials Worry

(International News Service) LOS ANGELES, Jan. 6.—A squad of Los Angeles detectives was detailed today to investigate reports from Cleveland that the eastern city's famous "torso murderer" was spending the winter in California.

The police department received a photo copy of a letter mailed from Los Angeles to Police Chief George Matarwitz, under the date of last Dec. 21.

Can Rest Easy

The letter advised the Cleveland chief that "you can rest easy now as I have come out to southern California for the winter."

It was signed "X" and asserted that the writer had killed a victim in Los Angeles.

"The body has not been found," the letter said, "and it never will be, but the head is buried in a gully on Century boulevard, between Western and Crenshaw. I feel it is my duty to dispose of the bodies I do. It is God's will not to let them suffer," the letter concluded.

Hospital Employees Are Exempt From Minimum Wage Law

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Jan. 6.—Employees in hospital laundries operated on a non-commercial basis today were exempted from Pennsylvania's minimum wage law for women and minors passed during the 1937 regular session of the legislature.

Attorney General Guy K. Bard, in a formal opinion, advised Secretary of Labor and Industry Ralph M. Bashore that hospital laundries, employing women and minors and operated as charitable institutions are entitled to retain their charitable character.

"It is the settled law of Pennsylvania," Bard ruled, "that as long as a charitable institution keeps within the ambit of its charitable activities and uses its property directly for charitable uses, it retains its charitable character."

But whenever the organization engages in trade or a commercial activity for the purpose of increasing its revenues or making any part of its operation self-supporting, the trade features of its activities are subject to taxation, and this is true even though the revenue derived from the business is devoted to the support of charity."

French Premier Algiers Visitor

Daladier Reviews Troops
And Has Military Conference In Algeria

By KENNETH T. DOWNS
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

ALGIERS, Algeria, Jan. 6.—Greeted by a roaring 19-gun salute, Premier Edouard Daladier of France arrived at Algiers today on another leg of his "solidarity" tour of French possessions and dependencies.

The stocky French statesman, who is staging the tour as a warning to Italy to keep out of French colonies, disembarked from the French warship Foch shortly before 9 a. m. He sailed last night from Bizerte after ending his triumphal tour of the French Tunisian protectorate.

According to a tremendous ovation, Daladier reviewed a triumphal military parade. Thereafter his actions left no doubt that the real purpose of his visit to Algeria is the grim business of buttressing France's African defenses.

Secret Military Conference
After the ceremonies in the city, Daladier left to attend a secret military conference at the summer palace.

Attending this party were the highest military chiefs of French North Africa, as well as the governor general and resident general of Algeria, the commandant of the 19th army corps, the commandant of the fifth aerial region and the admiral commanding the Algerian marine.

The discussion reportedly centered around plans for the quickest possible coordination of the Algerian, Moroccan and Tunisian military forces in the event of a possible sudden attack upon Tunisia or French Somaliland by Italy.

Daladier will depart for France tonight, bringing an end to the journey throughout which, in numerous speeches, he has stressed that France will not yield an inch to Fascist territorial demands as they affect French possessions or protectorates.

Hunters Get Two Foxes This Morning

Animals Are Shot On Farm In Vicinity Of Edenburg By Local Men

It doesn't take an organized posse of fox hunters to get the animals it was proven by three well known local hunters today.

Robert "Bob" Ratcliff of 217 North Ray street and Ralph Jamison of 116 North Ray street, started out this morning in the direction of Edenburg in quest of Mister Fox. They were joined later by "Red" Locke, on whose farm the two New Castle men were hunting. It wasn't long until Ratcliff shot a female red fox that weighed in the neighborhood of 15 or 18 pounds, and a short while later, Locke, using a rifle, brought down a male gray fox that will go about 20 or 25 pounds. Both are fine specimens. Ratcliff got his with a shotgun.

It made quite an interesting sight as the auto bearing the men entered New Castle. We are accustomed to seeing deer tied on the front of cars, also rabbits, but not foxes.

(Organized fox hunts take notice, these were secured in the neighborhood of the Locke farm, located at New Castle R. D. 2.) A thoroughbred fox hunting dog was used by the men.

JUNIOR O. U. A. M. TO INSTALL OFFICERS

The Jr. O. U. A. M. will hold installation of officers, on Thursday, January 12, at the McGowan Hall at 7:30 o'clock.

They met last evening, for their regular business meeting. Following a dance was enjoyed by members and their friends.

Mooney Ready For Freedom

Will Attend Hearing In Sacramento Saturday And May Be Free Man

WILL SEEK TO FREE BILLINGS

(International News Service)
SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Jan. 6.—After 22 years in prison for a crime of which he always has claimed he was innocent, Tom Mooney, one of the most famous prisoners of all times, is to leave San Quentin prison early tomorrow, probably never to return.
The labor leader, for whom millions of unionists the world over waged a continual fight for vindication over two decades, was smiling happily today.
At 10 a. m. tomorrow, newly-inaugurated Gov. Gilbert L. Olson, California's first Democrat governor in 40 years, will go through the formality of a hearing at Sacramento on Mooney's application for a pardon.

Serving Life Terms
Shortly afterwards he plans to issue the order freeing Mooney and absolving him of complicity in the San Francisco preparedness day bombing in 1916, which killed 10 persons and injured 40. For that crime Mooney and Warren K. Billings were sentenced to life imprisonment. Mooney escaped the gallows only through intervention of President Woodrow Wilson.

As he packed his belongings and prepared to leave for Sacramento, Mooney pledged himself to battle for his fellow prisoners' release.
"I'm going to dedicate the rest of my life, if necessary, to winning freedom for Warren Billings, too."

The first was discovered just in time, as it had started to work its way between the floors. Firemen stayed on the scene until 6:15 o'clock this morning to make certain that the last spark had been extinguished.

County Historical Society Has Session

Meeting Held On Thursday Evening In Senior High School

Meeting in the senior high school Thursday night the Lawrence County Historical society approved the securing of a charter, approved the constitution which was drawn by a committee with Judge James A. Chambers as chairman and laid plans for the carrying out of a program in the coming months.

President Charles H. Young presided, about sixty members being present. The charter has 160 members on it and following the meeting Thursday night the charter was closed.

In the absence of Chairman George W. Muse, Louis B. Round presented a report of the program committee providing for a meeting in February the date and place to be announced later.

During the meeting Thomas A. Gilkey offered to the society the surveying instruments used in laying out the City of New Castle. These were accepted with thanks and will be placed on exhibition. The securing of other historical objects was discussed and the co-operation of all the citizens of the county asked in promoting the interests of the society.

Salary Ordinance Not Yet Revamped

Council To Pay Chauncey Davis According To Rating By Law

Council has not yet revamped the ordinance designating duties and salaries of city employees. It is anticipated it may be completed today and introduced Monday when council meets.

One employee is assured an increase in wages. He is Chauncey Davis who acts as a sanitary policeman. Under civil service law he is actually a city policeman.

His salary will be made the same as other police, which is $142.00 monthly. He has been designated as a policeman for a year or two but has been paid only $120.00 monthly.

According to the law covering Davis, he can be assigned to police work by Chief Criswell when needed.

Dramatization At Christian Church Meeting Tonight

Two Hymns Are To Be Dramatized By Evangelists At Central Christian

A beautiful service has been arranged for this evening in the Central Christian church. Long and Pennsylvania avenues, where Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Jope, state evangelists for the denomination, are conducting services.

Mrs. Jope, assisted by several young people, will present a beautiful dramatization, for which a lovely garden setting has been arranged. The hymns to be dramatized are, "In the Garden" and "Beautiful Garden of Prayer." There will be several special vibraphone solos during the evening. Rev. Jope will speak on "Strange Things."

Every night Mrs. Jope conducts a story telling period for children, a feature which has proven very popular.

Mrs. Hugh Turner Funeral Saturday

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Rachel Turner, 65, wife of Hugh Turner, who passed away on January 4 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Harvey, 431 Sixth street, Monaca, will be conducted at that address Saturday at 2:30 p. m., according to announcement received here. Interment will be in Woodlawn cemetery.

Besides her husband and daughter Mrs. Turner is survived by two granddaughters, Rachel and Cathie Harvey.

It is always safe to use a good old gag. The audience is either too young to have heard it or old enough to have a poor memory.

Traffic Here Shows Increase

According to statistics compiled by Ralph A. Criswell, police chief, the services of 15 men and one auto are required daily to take charge of traffic here which has grown by leaps and bounds during the past score of years. There now are 44 men in the police department. There were more than 3300 arrests during 1938, half of which grew out of traffic violations.

News And Views From Pennsylvania Capital

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 6.—A demonstration unprecedented in Pennsylvania's legislative history embarked on its stormiest opening in years. Valiant attempts by the Democrats to retain control of the senate, their last remaining patronage center, partially succeeded when they eked out a narrow one-vote majority for all senate offices except that of president pro tem, which they lost by the same margin.

Parliamentary duels between Lt. Gov. Thomas Kennedy and Republican senators headed by floor leader C. Mason Dwyer, Toaga county, brought the session to a close. Until Sen. William J. Erge, Lawrence Democrat, bolted the Democratic ranks and voted for the election of Sen. Frederick Gelder, Susquehanna, for president pro tempore. Wildly cheering spectators on the Republican side of the chamber were answered by thundering boos from the Democratic side. The Democrats succeeded in seating Sen. Herbert S. Levin, Philadelphia Democrat, despite a supreme court ruling to the contrary.

Attorney General Guy K. Bard was drawn into the bitter organization struggle as he was requested to rule on the senate's right to seat Levin, ignoring the supreme court action. . . . Bard said the senate had the exclusive right to pass on qualifications of its members. . . . Political observers were of the opinion that the sealing of Levin gave the Republicans a choice of waiting for the supreme court to take cognizance of the situation and ignoring of its order or to bring some legal action which would throw the issue back to the court for an opinion.

Politicians in Lackawanna and Luzerne counties are wondering what U. S. Sen. Joseph F. Guffey, Pennsylvania's "No. 1" Democrat, will do in the way of filling the job of internal revenue collector in the 12th district, which has headquarters in Scranton. . . . The post was recently vacated by the death of James F. Mundy, brother of State Sen. Leo C. Mundy. . . . Lt. Gov. Kennedy, who goes out of office on January 17 with the inauguration of Gov.-Elect Arthur H. James, is understood to be first choice. . . . James Law, Democratic chairman in Luzerne county, has been mentioned also. . . . The position pays $6,000 a year and carries much patronage with it.

Bridges' Attacks Naming Of Harry Hopkins To Post

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—An attack on the appointment of Harry L. Hopkins, former WPA administrator, as secretary of commerce was made in the senate Thursday by Senator Bridges (R) of New Hampshire. Bridges took the floor shortly after President Roosevelt had sent the nomination to the senate along with a list of other appointees. Bridges began by declaring that "the president this morning in his appointments seems to have specialized in 'lame-duck' appointments."

"But in the case of Hopkins," Bridges continued, "Mr. Roosevelt has gone the nation one better in appointing one who has been repudiated by the entire nation."

Last G.A.R. Member From Indiana, Pa., Called By Death

(International News Service)

INDIANA, Pa., Jan. 6.—Death today had called the sole remaining member of post No. 23, Grand Army of the Republic, of Indiana, Findley Carney, aged 101. Carney died late Wednesday of ailments incident to his age. He would have been 102 years old next June 26, and almost 100 years of his life were spent on the farm where he was born and died. He served in Company I, 135th Pennsylvania Volunteers. Proudly, he often had recalled a rainy night during which President Lincoln had called him to the shelter of a porch while he was on guard duty at the White House.

Although the average weight of the matured American lobster is about two pounds, there are records of 13 of them that weighed more than 20 pounds each, one of which, the largest known, tipped the scales at 35 pounds. It was caught off Atlantic Highlands, N. J., in 1897, says Collier's Weekly, and is on exhibition in the American Museum of Natural History in New York city.

Mercer Post Office To Be Completed During Spring

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Jan. 6.—Though the contract date for the completion of the Mercer post office, under construction at the corner of Venango and North Pittsburgh streets, is set for June 21, it is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy weeks before schedule. Favored by good weather conditions the stone and brick work was rushed through before rough weather set in and for the past month women have been engaged in the wounding of the interior. The plumbing work and installation of boilers was completed weeks ago. All partitions are in with the exception of one in a part of the building which will, when finished, house the County Soil Conservation office. Slatting of the roof will be delayed until more favorable weather conditions prevail.

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

(Material Gathered and Edited by Student Reporters)

EDITORIAL

At the beginning of this week, a sad old man passed away. Few mourners passed before his bier. This broken down old man was 1938. Shortly after his death, there was born a little lad whose destiny is to carry the flaming torch of old 1938. This frolicking youngster is young 1939. In this lad, all the hopes and aspirations of Father Time are embodied. However, with all his faculties, the Little New Year expects to play no favorites.

Those whom his predecessor failed to recompense, it is hoped that the New Year will fully reward. As in anything that is youthful, much will be expected from him. His youth will not save him from the knocks of adversity, though. It is his supreme duty to carry the torch given to him on the midnight of December 31, throughout 1939 till his service expires at the termination of his life. As an untired, gayly bedecked knight of old, we cheer this youth with the flaming torch into the lists where he will hold up the honor of his ancestors, the dead years. So, as we are in the act of setting down numerous resolutions for the year, let us give due respect to Little New Year and say: "Let us not expect what we have not earned!" Happy New Year.

SENIOR HI-Y MEETING

The Senior Hi-Y members met at the "Y" Wednesday, January 4 with "Duke" Woolcock, president, presiding.

Dave Taylor opened the meeting with devotionals after which Everett "Tut" Hoffman read the minutes of the last meeting.

The club then decided to start Hi-Y Bible study next semester. Plans were approved for a Hi-Y party to be given January 31 in honor of the departing Senior A's. An entertainment committee was then selected, consisting of "Tut" Hoffman and Ed Fortney.

It was then announced that the Senior Hi-Y had won the basketball tournament which had taken place among the Hi-Y organizations. The meeting was then adjourned and several of the group enjoyed the swimming pool.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council met Wednesday with President "Duke" Woolcock in charge. Virginia Frederick read the minutes and they were approved. Howard Lyon submitted a report from the social committee concerning the Council party to be held January 12.

Council decided to appoint a committee of all the vice-presidents of the different classes and two council members to act as a permanent committee to propose to the students and get under way the plan of block memorials for graduation classes. Amidst fiery discussion, the bell rang and the meeting was adjourned.

DINKS

At last the day that every student secretly yearns for has arrived. The seniors have received their dinks and every underclassman's eyes are filled with envy as these marks of distinction are sported around.

The boys' dinks are fashioned on the order of captains hats with the top divided into fourths of navy blue and gold cloth. The band is navy blue with the owner's name in gold at the side and his school letters and year numerals are all in gold on the front.

The boys wear these dinks in various positions, the most favorite of which seems to be balancing them precariously on the tops of their heads.

The girls' dinks are fashioned as a skull cap with the crown all gold excepting a navy blue tassel and band. Their names, school letters and year numerals are all in navy blue on the front of the dink.

When a group of seniors gather together they make quite a colorful sight of navy blue and gold.

If any of the underclassmen are a little envious of them, we remind them that if they follow our school's motto, "Perge Modo," they too will wear a dink someday.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP MEETING

All those who had signed membership cards for the good citizenship club gathered in the auditorium with Miss Rhodes in charge of the meeting. Miss Rhodes explained the purpose of the meeting and of the organization. She named, as the project of the Student Council, Student Representatives, and of the good citizenship club, a student court. She explained the advantages and disadvantages of such a court and then answered questions concerning its workings, which members of the audience asked.

The student body, through room elections, will decide upon a student court in the near future.

SOPHOMORE HI-Y MEETING

The Sophomore Hi-Y met at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday, January 3. Tom Middleton, the president, was in charge.

A new member, Jack Montgomery, was welcomed to the club.

A committee to take charge of the programs for this month were Ray Dug, Darrel Johnston and Richard Hile.

Secretary Russell Lawson then read the minutes of the last meeting and as the treasurer was absent, no financial report was given.

The rest of the evening was spent informally.

JUNIOR B MEETING

At the Junior B meeting on Wednesday, the class was introduced to their officers. The officers are as follows: James Newell, president; Thomas Donovan, vice president; Helen Stritzinger, secretary; Robert Maher, treasurer; Jane Walls and Donald Howard, program committee.

Miss Rhodes then gave a talk on entering into activities and Miss Williams supplemented her speech with her own comments. The bell rang, ending the Junior B's first class meeting.

JUNIOR HI-Y

The Junior Hi-Y club met Tuesday, January 3 at the Y. M. C. A.

The meeting was opened by President Francis Kennedy and Cecil Brown led the club in devotionals.

The routine business was then discussed and the Christmas baskets committee gave their report. Jim Newell, Dave Maul, and Howard Snyder were appointed to form a membership committee. John McMullen, Jim Newell, and Crawford Richards were elected to the refreshment committee. The club decided to have a "Go To Sunday School Campaign" and a "Bible Study Campaign."

The meeting was closed with a friendship circle.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

The Girls' Athletic Club under the direction of Miss Fischer held its first meeting of the new year in the gym, third period, on Tuesday.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Dot Metzler and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Every year the club does something for the poor people of the city and this year the girls packed and delivered five Christmas baskets.

Business was discussed and Miss Fischer made known the plan to have a program and exhibition sometime in the spring. The meeting was then adjourned until Friday when a special meeting will be held third period.

TEACHER IS ILL

Miss Eva English of the English department is confined in the Jameson Memorial hospital. She has our best wishes for a speedy recovery. Miss Lois Lee is conducting her classes during Miss English's absence.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES

The Student Representatives met in room 28 with Miss Turk. More plans for the Student Court were discussed and decided upon. The question of the Student Court will be presented to the student body for final decision in the near future.

Plans for a Good Citizenship assembly were discussed and preparations for it were begun.

The Student Representatives made plans for a drive to make the school conscious of Good Citizenship by stressing a certain point each day. The meeting was then adjourned.

CLASS DAY SPEAKERS

The members of the Senior class held their election for class day speakers at whose mercy they will be on class day. The outcome of the election is as follows:

Historian—Lyda Castrucci.
Will—Adrian Winter.
Prophecy—Louis Walls.
Knocker—Joe Hunter.
Master of Ceremonies—Bob Meermans.

The class day committee is hard at work making arrangements for the program. This committee is composed of Lyda Castrucci, chairman; Ruth Payne, David Pehl, Harvey Lewis, and "Sentinel" Louis Walls.

FRENCH-GERMAN MEETING

On Tuesday of this week the combined French and German clubs held a question bee. Members representing the German club were Willis Foster, Jane Haven, Jane Rhodes, Emma Schuller, Wilbur Sloan and Tom Wilcox. Those from the French club were Rose Costa, Edward Portney, Helen Love, Mary L. Mehan, James Rucker and Doreatha Stewart. The timekeepers were Willa Warso and Chalmers Sproull. The scorekeepers were Norman Waddington and Emma Lou Kleckner. The mediators were the club's supervisors, Miss Kelley and Miss Riffel.

The meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by all and excitement ran high. The question bee ended in a tie. Wilbur Sloan was high scorer, missing none of the questions asked. Wilbur is the president of the German club. Helen Love scored highest for the French club.

DOFORS DEBUT

This morning the Dofors made their debut on the high school stage for group 1 in the opera, "A Day in the School Library." The libretto is of an informative character, with snatches of humor worked in, regarding the use of the library. The music is adapted from a number of Gilbert and Sullivan light operas. The school orchestra under the direction of Mr. Replogle played selections from "H. M. S. Pinafore" and "The Mikado," which were appreciated by the students.

The opera was under the co-direction of Barbara Parsons and Ed. Portney, with Jeanette Zeklin as musical director. The announcer was Sam Day. Patricia Blaine took the part of the librarian and Bill Alexander that of reference librarian. The other parts are taken by other members of the library staff.

The action takes place in the school. The members of the staff enter in a rousing chorus to commence their duties. No sooner does the bell ring for the first period class than in troops a group of students seeking "information, inspiration, study or recreation."

The reference librarian tells in song what he knows about the library. This is followed by a snappy bit of dialogue. The library staff has a meeting and is visited by a mother seeking her son who is a bookworm. She leaves the library amid the final chorus by the staff giving a musical definition and opinion of themselves.

This will be repeated for assembly group II next week.

"Torso" Yarn In Cleveland Hoax

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, Jan. 6.—Two days ago Jack Hart, 26, a WPA worker, went to police with a story of being attacked by a man wearing "yellow surgical gloves" and armed with a knife. Hart said he believed the man was Cleveland's torso murderer. Detective Peter Merylo, who has investigated the countless tips on the torso slayer, asked Hart a few questions.

It wasn't long before the young man found himself in city jail. Not only did he admit to Merylo that his story was a hoax, but also that he was on parole from the Lansing, Mich., penitentiary where he served five years on a robbery charge.

'Increase Campaign' Is One Of Topics At Westfield Gathering

Sabbath School Executives Meet With Mt. Jackson District

A joint executive committee meeting of the Lawrence County Sabbath school and the Mt. Jackson district was held at the Westfield Presbyterian church Thursday evening in charge of the county president, Robert M. Strickler, Jr., and the district president, Paul Wallace.

After the reading of the minutes by the county secretary, Mrs. H. F. Magill, H. L. Marvin, president of the New Castle district, presented the advantages of enlisting in the "increase" campaign to be held the eight weeks prior to Easter Sunday. This campaign embraces the four state convention goals of an increase in evangelism, an increase in Sunday school attendance, an increase in church attendance and an increase in Bible study, and similar campaigns have been held in Lawrence county with splendid results for the past two years.

Rev. R. E. Douglass, county Christian education head, gave a review of the work being done in his department and led an open discussion in which Mrs. Charles Henderson, vice president of Mt. Jackson district, and Guy M. Fullerton, district treasurer, took part. The following county activities were also announced: Mid-year efficiency and children's division conference, Highland U. P. church, New Castle, Thursday, January 26, afternoon session, conference fellowship dinner, and evening session, Miss Roberts, the state children's division superintendent, chief speaker and leader; and a leadership training school, the date, place and instructors to be published in the near future.

Principals Take Action After Numerous Annoyances Of Teachers

A resolution has been adopted that in the future, no soliciting will be permitted by persons other than those representing text book companies, unless they bear a letter of recommendation from the county superintendent of schools, John C. Syling.

Inspiring Services At Salvation Army

Interesting and inspirational revival services are continuing at the Salvation Army hall with Captain Fred Duncan, Salvation Army evangelist from New York City, as the speaker.

Born in Helensburg, Scotland, Captain Duncan was trained as an engineer in the shipyards on the Clyde river. As a member of the Royal Air Force he saw service in France during the World War. Since coming to America he has worked for public utilities in Detroit and New York.

Shortly after his conversion he became a member of the Salvation Army training college staff, New York. He has a clear, practical message for everyone. Captain Duncan's topic this evening will be "The American Dictator." This message will be illustrated by charts. Copies of the sermon will be distributed at the conclusion of the service this evening.

In every profession you will find two groups—those who handle the big jobs and those who bitterly and scornfully criticize their way of doing it.

Mrs. Hampton was near death in a hospital at Corbin, Ky.

CLEANEST CAT? (International News Service)

PENDLETON, Ore.—Clair Cooley believes he has the cleanest cat in the country. Life to "Butch," the cat, revolves about a wash bowl where he eats soap from a holder, drinks water from a tap and curls

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

Copyright 1938, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

WHAT MUST BE DONE WHEN ECZEMA DEVELOPS?

Already we have discussed what a discouraging job it is to try to cure your baby when he is allergic to some thing in his food and has developed eczema.

Let us suppose now that the baby is being fed on cow's milk and develops eczema at the age of one month. There are several steps that can be taken. The first, and perhaps the easiest, is to cook the milk for a prolonged period, for this will change the character or the proteins contained in the milk, and baby may not be sensitive to these changed proteins.

This cooking should take place in the upper half of a double boiler and it should be continued for at least two hours. During this cooking the milk will change in appearance and become yellower and it will be more digestible.

Another way to change the protein in the milk which is bothering your child is to use evaporated milk. Now this product is boiled for a considerable time during the evaporation process and so the proteins are changed.

There are various types of patented baby foods on the market which are supposed to replace milk and which contain no milk protein at all. However, I would advise mothers not to resort to these without the specific instruction of a doctor.

Let us assume that one of the above methods of changing proteins has been successful, and that your baby's eczema is improving. It is now time that the child received his Vitamins C and D. These may cause him to have more eczema.

Let us say that we start the baby on a fruit juice. He should be given some the first day, and then none on the three succeeding days. If the eczema gets worse in that time then we know that it is the juice that is doing it. Then you can carry out the same routine with some other juice. If the eczema rash continues to be aggravated by these, then it is often a good idea to get some tablets that are on the market and which contain pure vitamin C. These rarely cause trouble.

When the problem so far as Vitamin C is solved, then some experimenting must be carried on to see what product containing it gives him the least trouble.

Cereals and vegetables are next added to the diet, and these additions should be made in the same careful way. Otherwise you may find the poor little baby again covered with an itchy eczema rash.

One of the main things to keep in mind, however, when you are carefully trying to eliminate any food that your child is sensitive to, is that a fat, healthy baby, even if it suffers some from eczema is preferable to a thin, unhealthy baby with no eczema. What I am trying to tell you is that the treatment of eczema in a child should never be so extreme and drastic as to clear his rash at the expense of his general health.

I know it may sound rather unnecessary for me to say this to parents, but actually I have known mothers who became so determined in their efforts to clear up the baby's eczema that they jeopardized the child's health.

Premier Chamberlain Thanks Roosevelt

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

LONDON, Jan. 6.—In a move unprecedented in modern times, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain last night formally thanked President Roosevelt on behalf of Great Britain for his message to Congress in which he lashed the dictators and marshaled the strength of democracy against intolerance and aggression.

Stressing the "vital role of America in world affairs," Chamberlain swept aside traditional British reticence by issuing a formal statement applauding the sentiments expressed by Mr. Roosevelt in his widely-broadcast address.

It was the first time in recent memory that a British prime minister had chosen to speak formally on behalf of his government in connection with a speech made by an American president to his Congress. The statement follows:

"Nobody who is charged with heavy responsibilities of government could fail to be impressed by the solemn words with which the president of the United States yesterday greeted the elected representatives of the American people.

"In these islands where we are so close to the realization that only through freedom and peace can we hope to maintain and develop for ourselves and those coming after us the benefits for which we labored for generations, the sentiments expressed by the president will be welcomed as yet another indication of the vital role of American democracy in world affairs and its devotion to the ideal of ordered human progress."

List Of "What America Is Reading" Lists Many Books In Library

An interesting list of books has just been posted on the bulletin board of the Mahoningtown Branch Library. This is entitled, "What America Is Reading."

By looking at the list of the books one may readily see those available at the ward library, as they have all been marked with a small red star.

According to an explanation of the list of books these are the books that were the most popular throughout the land during the past month. The list is based on reports of sales made by publishing houses.

Most of the popular fiction books on the list are found in the library, and there are quite a few of the popular non-fiction editions started to indicate that they may be borrowed from the local institution.

Civic Club To Store Light Strings For Use Next Year In Ward

All of the street decorations put in place in the Seventh Ward for the Christmas season, were removed today. According to officers of the Seventh Ward Civic club, the colored light strings are being stored away by the club, and will be used in future years.

This equipment was purchased for the community this year by the Civic club. Hereafter, the only expense that will be incurred by the district in decorating for Christmas will be the installation and the electric charge.

Donations from residents of the community and from the merchants and members of the Civic club helped to pay for the decorations.

The Golden Text

"Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God."—Matthew 16:16.

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Jan. 8 is Matthew 16: 13-25, The Golden Text being Matthew 16:16, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God.")

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

It is now a year after Simon Peter left his boat and fishing activities and followed Jesus. Jesus and His disciples came to Caesarea Philippi, about 25 miles north of the Sea of Galilee.

Jesus was curious, as any of us might have been, as to what people said of Him, and asked His disciples, "Whom do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?"

"Some say Thou art John the Baptist; some Elias, and others Jeremiah or one of the other prophets," they answered.

"But whom say ye that I am?" He asked. And Simon Peter answered for them: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

This answer pleased Jesus. "Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona," he answered. Barjona means son of Jonah or John. He also told him that He would give him (Peter) the keys of heaven. You know Peter is called the gatekeeper of heaven.

Then Jesus told His disciples that they should not tell anyone whom they thought He was. He told them that He must go to Jerusalem and "suffer many things." At that Peter rebuked the Lord, saying that such things could not happen to Him.

But Jesus reproved Peter, telling him to "get thee behind me, Satan." Maybe even his heart failed when He thought of all the pain and suffering He was to endure—the accusations, the trials, the cross, and felt He would escape them if He could. "Then," said Jesus unto His disciples, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it."

Meaning that the good life is not easy, and it takes a person who is not afraid to take a firm stand, even if it means that he will lose his life. The impression that Jesus made on his hearers is illustrated by the story of the centurion. A centurion was a captain of an hundred men. He came to Jesus and said his servant was sick with the palsy—very sick. He wanted Jesus to heal him, but when Jesus said he would come to his home the centurion said he was not worthy to have the Master visit him, but that if He would only speak a word his servant would be saved.

And Jesus marveled at the man's faith, and said to him, "Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee." And his servant was healed in that same hour.

All through the accounts of Jesus' life you see how strong He was in His character. He gave praise where it was due. But He also told his followers and everyone just what He thought, and rebuked them when they were wrong, whether they were humble folk or "those in high places."

Real praise and appreciation are helpful, and so is just criticism. When you are scolded, try to ask yourself, "Do I deserve that?" If you can truthfully say the rebuke is unjust, try to forget it; but if you know in your heart that it is true, mend your ways. That is what Peter did. He, too, was a strong man, a real leader, one that other men followed. Although later he was to show himself weak in many ways, yet he was the one Jesus loved and who was truly a rock, as Jesus called him, "and upon this rock will I build my church," He said.

For 20 years Peter was the outstanding leader of the early Christian church, and although he was only an ignorant fisherman, he was looked up to by all who worked with him and is known as Jesus' best loved disciple.

DENTIST IS INVENTOR

(International News Service)
TRENTON, N. J.—Dr. James S. Miller, dental surgeon, of Trenton, N. J., reported he has perfected an invention that registers actions of the face and jaws by light. Beams of light move with the actions of the jaw. The invention is the result of years of experimenting. Dr. Miller claims that the apparatus will make indentures as perfect as humanly possible.

Correct this sentence: "So long as people don't bother me," said the man, "I can't see that their faults are any of my business."

Labor Committee Willing To Hear New Proposals

Perfectly Willing To Consider Proposals For Changes In Wagner Labor Act

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The House Labor committee is "perfectly willing" to consider any proposals for changing the Wagner labor act, Rep. Mary T. Norton (D) of New Jersey, said today, but she added that her committee would not permit itself to be rushed into taking action.

That is also the position of the committee with regard to altering the wage-hour act, Mrs. Norton declared. Numerous amendments have been proposed to each law, with the American Federation of Labor leading the fight for revision of the Wagner labor relations act.

"The committee is perfectly willing to consider any amendments to the labor relations act, but personally I think Senator Wagner should be consulted before anything is done," she said.

Correct Imperfections
"If either law contains imperfections we want to correct them. I know there have been numerous complaints regarding the Wagner act and I am certain that if perfecting amendments to it are needed, congress will act."

"However, from what I have heard, the bulk of the complaints seem to have been against the administration of the act by the National Labor Relations board. Perhaps if a new member is named to the board the situation will remedy itself and no change in the law will be required."

President Roosevelt last summer announced he planned to reappoint Donald Wakefield Smith to the board, but the A. F. of L. is opposed to Smith. His decisions, the federation charged, have been prejudicial in favor of the CIO, the A. F. of L. rival.

Ten U. S. Marines Rout 30 Jap Soldiers In Fight

(International News Service)
SHANGHAI, Jan. 6.—One United States marine against three Japanese soldiers at the good old sport of fistfights and it's a massacre—well, practically a massacre.

This premise was pretty well proved today when ten American marines guarding the Shanghai Power Company's plant in the Yangtzepoo district battled thirty Japanese soldiers in a short but decisive free-for-all.

Eight Knocked Out

When the dust settled it was found that eight of the Japanese had been knocked cold by the hammer-like fists of the marines, and a number of others were banged up and that the remainder had fled. The trouble began when the Japanese took a shortcut through the company's property after a Russian watchman who saw them coming was afraid to close the gate.

A second watchman, however, not informed of his companion's experience, locked the gate. The Japanese immediately climbed over it and beat up the watchman.

Calling out the marine guard four marines who saw the incident immediately mixed in and within a few minutes the battle was on. No weapons other than fists were used.

Speculation On Possible Plan For Refugees

Message From Roosevelt To Mussolini Cause Of Speculation In Rome

(International News Service)
ROME, Jan. 6.—Possibility that President Roosevelt might have offered a concrete plan for solution of Italy's "Jewish problem" caused speculation among observers in Rome today.

The Italian government officially revealed that United States Ambassador William Phillips gave Premier Mussolini a personal message from President Roosevelt concerning questions arising from anti-Jewish measures in Italy and elsewhere.

It was believed the American president may have invoked Mussolini's own hints of large land concessions in Ethiopia to Jews from Italy in presenting a plan. This could not be confirmed officially, however. Meanwhile, President Roosevelt's message to congress aroused criticism in Italian circles. Unofficial Fascist quarters described the address as a "purely political speech designed to win a third term" for the president.

It was remarked that the president's attack upon dictatorships would contribute "only to aggravation of the world, arousing America to a war hysteria and making peace less attainable."

Capone Can Get Free For $20,000 After Serving One Year

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—If money will do the job, $20,000 will all that stood today between Al Capone and his freedom. Twenty grand was just pocket money when Capone landed it over Chicago's gangland a few years back and it appears no serious problem to him yet.

Paving the way for Capone's release from Alcatraz prison, his brother John yesterday planked down an installment of $37,892.29 on the fines and court costs demanded by the government.

The additional $20,000 is not payable until Al has served the year for contempt of court that was tacked on his ten-year term for income tax violations back in 1932.

"It will be paid when it is due," said Capone's lawyer tersely.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

The heart beats 60 to 80 times a minute.

This is 100,000 times a day, 3,000,000 times per month.

A total of 36,500,000 times a year.

During a 60-year life this means two billion contractions.

Every 24 hours the heart does a lot of work.

An equivalent to lifting one ton to the height of 8 stories.

What is all this energy doing?

It is pumping blood through the circulatory system.

Work upon the re-indexing of the tax lien and judgment books in the office of Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts John A. Edgar has been authorized, a contract signed and within a short time the Russell Indexing Company will start the work.

The last indexing of books was done in 1919 and since that time records have been in shape they could be found with little effort. The new job of indexing will have two general indices, one for the tax liens and one for judgments.

The office is now filled to capacity with record books but if the proposed wing to the court house is built a new vault will be provided for Edgar and space made available for all records.

Life in the county jail goes quietly on these days. The jail has been painted throughout and is kept clean at all times. There is always a few folks who try to get by on a pass. The rust in County Treasurer V. I. Mandich's office on Saturday resulted in a number of people having their names taken and delinquent taxes made out which they paid this week. Now calls are coming in from folks who claim they were there on Saturday and want to pay their delinquencies.

Dog licenses are moving slowly. Of the more than eight thousand dogs in the county only 275 are covered with licenses thus far. A word to the dog owners, "the dog law man'll get you if you don't watch out."

Ellwood Council Meets Thursday

R. Fike Named To Library Board; Other Routine Matters Considered

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 6.—Paxton R. Fike was unanimously elected as a member of the Library board by the Ellwood City Council on Thursday evening when they held their regular meeting in the city building.

Mr. Fike, whose term begins at once, succeeds R. T. Siler, who has served for the past three years. Mr. Fike expressed appreciation for his selection.

The finance committee and borough manager, with the city solicitor, will study the filed tax liens in order that collection may be forced in cases where the property owner is in a position to pay. The borough holds liens for $48,000, it was disclosed, a great many having been renewed at the required intervals.

A motion that the borough books and electric light accounts be audited by a certified public accountant and a modern bookkeeping system installed was unanimously passed. Bids on the work will be secured.

Damage to the amount of $1800 was listed in the fire chief's report for the fire at the Ellwood company. With a number of lower bids having been received, it was decided to re-advertise for bids for 500 feet of 2 1/2 inch fire hose.

A request of the school board that an office for delinquent tax collection be provided in the municipal building was referred to the rules and regulations committee with power to act.

Regarding a communication from the J. Wilbur Randolph post of the American Legion that a skating pond be constructed in the city, Mr. Fike said his committee had met with representatives of the post and a committee of the Chamber of Commerce and that a pond is now under construction at the Clydesdale Brick plant, near Wiley Hill. The use of the borough grader in constructing the pond was sanctioned.

A letter of appreciation for the cooperation of the electric light department in installing the Christmas street decorations was received.

A petition asking the paving of Fifth street from Lawrence to Factory avenue was read and given to the street committee for investigation. A number of ordinances establishing the center grade line of various streets were passed on second and final reading, upon the suspension of the rules of council.

Requesting a further delay in the expansion of the sewerage treatment plant on account of the financial condition of the borough, a letter was read and will be sent to the state health department.

Only two cases of contagion and those of whooping cough were listed in the health officer's monthly report.

An exonerations list of electric light delinquents was read and following much controversy over various names on the list, was referred back to the electric light department for study.

No mention was made of the budget for the new year, although it is being prepared by the finance committee.

J. Ellis Bell Is Speaker Giving Interesting History Of Engineering Project

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 6.—J. Ellis Bell, superintendent of the Ellwood schools, was the Rotary club speaker last evening at the weekly dinner meeting held in the First Presbyterian church and told of the great developments in the Tennessee Valley. Paul Winter introduced the speaker.

He expressed his interest in engineering project and testified there was much of interest in the building of the great dams along the Tennessee river. It was a surprise to most to think of the vast area of the whole project, the Valley extending for a distance of about as far as from Ellwood City to Philadelphia, and back again, and with a width almost the distance from here to Erie.

The Tennessee Valley Authority was set up in 1933, and for the three primary purposes of conservation, navigation and flood control and power. As to navigation the plan is to provide a nine foot channel six hundred miles to Knoxville. The plan completed will have from seven to eleven dams. The largest of these dams is the Norris dam which is 365 feet high and 1872 feet long and has in it 1,000,000 cubic yards of concrete. In the construction of it they poured 12 tons of concrete every three minutes. It required two years to build the dam.

Flood Control Budget Increase Is $38,000,000

Flood Control Advocates Jubilant Over Increased Amount For Reservoir Work

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Jan. 6.—A $38,000,000 increase in the federal budget for general flood elimination projects during the year 1940 today caused jubilation among flood control advocates.

Ralph C. Edgar, secretary of the tri-state authority, said: "That looks promising. Last year the appropriation was $2,000,000 as congress has been disposed to appropriate even more than is recommended in the budget. We have every reason to believe we will receive the amount necessary to carry on projects in Western Pennsylvania."

The item on the budget for 1940 totals $110,000,000.

Start Two More
 Edgar said about $15,000,000 would be needed in the next fiscal year, starting July 1, to complete present projects and start two proposed new impounding reservoirs, one on the Youghiogheny river and the other on Red Bank creek near Brooksville.

The budget submitted to congress did not designate the individual projects to be included in the $110,000,000 appropriation.
 Lieut. Col. William E. R. Cowell, head of the army engineers in the tri-state area, said that work was already underway at Tonesta and Crooked Creek dams and channel improvement work in the Conemaugh river at Johnstown.

Work on the Loyalhanna dam will get under way within the next few months, the chief of engineers anticipated.

Let Hitch-Hiker Hike, Motorists Are Instructed

(International News Service) INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Let the hitch-hiker hike, Todd Stoops, secretary-manager of the Hoosier Motor club, urged motorists today.

Criminal deeds recently perpetrated by hitch-hikers warrant such an attitude on the part of drivers, Stoops declared.

"It is true that many deserving persons are on the highways, thumbing their way to some place where work has been promised them," the motor club official said. "But, the roads are literally lined with hitch-hikers and it is impossible for drivers to pick the deserving thumb from the unworthy hitch-hiker, he pointed out, adding:

"Two women school teachers, driving in Missouri, picked up two male hitch-hikers. The school teachers were raped and murdered."

Driver Shot
 "A man driving in Indiana picked up a hitch-hiker who claimed he was a student at Purdue university. The man was robbed and shot four times. Many hitch-hikers claim to be college students and will go as far as to obtain college pennants to paste on their luggage."

"A man driving near Shelbyville, Ind., picked up a man and a woman, hitch-hikers. The motorist, at the point of a gun was ordered to drive to a car owned by the hitch-hikers, where he was robbed."

"Just recently an Indianapolis motorist picked up a hitch-hiker who stabbed and robbed him."

Deputy Warden Stands Accused

Witness Charges He Was Responsible For Deaths At Holmesburg

SECOND DEGREE VERDICT ASKED

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—Deputy Warden Frank A. Craven today stood accused of being "fully responsible" for the "roasting deaths" of four convicts in Holmesburg prison's super-heated punishment cells.

The deputy warden, first of 10 accused prison officials and guards to be tried, "was in full control of the prison at the time," testified Dr. Frederick S. Baldi, acting superintendent of county prisons. Dr. Baldi, a prison physician at the time of the deaths which aroused nation-wide horror last August, described conditions of "excessive heat and no ventilation" he found when he entered the narrow punishment cells to administer to the victims.

Previously, Assistant District Attorney John A. Boyle, also placing blame on the deputy warden, asked the jury of five women and seven men to bring in a verdict of second degree murder against Craven, on trial specifically for the death of Frank Comodeca. The maximum penalty for that degree is 10 to 20 years.

Convicts To Testify
 Dr. Baldi resisted efforts by defense counsel to show that former superintendent, William B. Mills, also charged with murder, had sole authority at the prison. "The superintendent," he testified, "cannot always be at the prison, and the deputy wardens are in charge."

The physician admitted, however, that the superintendent could overrule the deputy guards.

Twenty-one other convicts, besides the four who died, were confined for more than 60 hours in the isolation cells following a "hunger strike" at Holmesburg. They are expected to testify for the prosecution. Separate trials were granted to five prison officials accused of murder, while five guards are to be tried later on manslaughter charges.

Craven and the others may be tried for each of the four deaths separately, in line with Judge Robert R. Lamberton's decision overruling a defense motion that the deaths resulted from one action and that Craven should be tried for all four deaths at once.

Cross-Country Trip Shows Tax Charge An Error

(International News Service) HOUSTON, Tex.—E. O. Duffee's opinion of his home town has slipped several notches since the commissioners' court "built" a house on his property here and then removed it—after he came the 1800 miles from New York, his present residence, to check up on the matter.

Duffee received a tax-raise notice on property he owns near South Houston. It listed a $2,000 home. Wondering if someone had put up a house as a present to him, Duffee took a train to Houston. The acreage still was bare.

Clerks in the tax assessor-collector's office took steps to straighten out the matter, while Duffee in high dudgeon, took the next train for New York.

COMPETITION IS HELD ESSENTIAL

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—The oil industry during the coming year must convince the American public that the competitive system of enterprise is essential for its welfare, asserted J. W. Van Dyke, board chairman of the Atlantic Refining company, in a New Year's statement.

That, in Van Dyke's opinion, takes precedence in importance over other problems such as heavy taxes, crude oil production control by governmental bureaus and threats to American oil interests abroad.

Too Many Wives Of Employed Husbands Are Also Holding Jobs

—ROGER W. BABSON

By ROGER W. BABSON
Copyright 1938—Publishers Financial Bureau.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6.—Business is today 10 per cent higher than a year ago. Yet employment is 10 per cent less. Why? One vital reason is the flooding of the job market with women.

BABSON
power to them. My only quarrel is with cases where both husband and wife hold salaried jobs. One should stay home and make a home!

The trek of women into offices and factories is one of the many causes of our abnormally heavy jobless totals. It is one of a dozen new trends which have been creating a revolution in our business and social lives. It started in 1930 but did not become a serious factor until business hit the skids in 1932.

Since then the girls have flocked into the employment market in hordes. The following statement is hard to believe, but it is a fact: The depression is leaving us with more women employed than ever before!

One-Third Of Women Work
John D. Biggers, who ran the 1937 job census for President Roosevelt from here in Washington, has this to say on the question of women job-holders:

More than a third of all workers are women—nearly 15,000,000—compared with 40,000,000 men. In 1930, 24 per cent of women over 16 years old had jobs. In 1937 the total had jumped to 31.5 per cent. (It is probably higher today.) Actually since 1930, 2,740,000 more women have crashed the business world than would have done so if the ratio had remained at 24 per cent.

These figures show that a good share of our unemployed total of nine million is due to a greater percentage of women holding jobs than ever before. Many daughters and wives who are working today would not have thought of doing so in 1929. Women's wages were pretty good then because there was a demand for competent female workers.

Today, however, in addition to glutting the whole job market, the girls have glutted their own. Women's wages have dropped 20 per cent since the "good old days." Modern machines can be operated by smart girls as well as men. So, with women cheaper to hire—and often brighter and more loyal than men—nothing is more logical than to have the women get the jobs.

Women Getting Big Jobs
My guess is that within 20 years many men holding key positions in industry will be tossed out and their jobs will be taken by women. This change is inevitable. Every business man is familiar with a concern in which the brains are furnished by a woman, even though men serve to give the company a masculine "front."

This trend is growing stronger every day. Only a month or so ago a woman was elected secretary of one of the big western railroads. It is the first time a woman has ever held an important official position on a railroad, even though railroads have more women than men stockholders. Only a few days ago—for the first time on record—a woman was made a director of a big utility concern.

We have all seen women getting into public office, although I think they fit into business better than they do into politics. Two examples of how women can become just as thick-skinned as men are Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins and Federal Judge Florence Allen. They set a good goal because one handicap which most business women have is lack of ability to "take it on the chin." Men better watch out when women learn to get "tough!" Industry is filled with so many male stuffed shirts that it will be a pushover for aggressive women to grab their jobs as soon as they get the new training that is open to them. I refer to schools and colleges that now especially train women for executive positions in business.

Started In Kitchen
The mechanization of the kitchen touched off this wholesale migration of women into business. It all started in the home and that is where the battle is the hottest right now. The modern husband must be sensible about the whole problem. It is a biological fact that a boy and a girl may inherit qualities from any branch of the family tree.

The girl may inherit her father's red hair and his business traits. Similarly, a boy may have his mother's black hair and her domestic qualities. If the wife has the business ability, then the husband should stay at home and give the baby the bottle, while the Mrs. goes out and does the bread-winning! This is necessary to cut down unemployment.

I know that working wives can build up a good case for themselves. It is pretty harsh medicine to fire a smart, aggressive woman whose husband does not earn enough to maintain the family's living standard. If such is the case, then the man should quit his job and learn to be a good "household engineer."

Some will say—and under normal conditions I would agree with them—that our lives are already too minutely regulated by a paternal government. But here is a case where we would jointly protect the home and justly redistribute jobs.

Cut Unemployment One Million

I would not want to see single women and wives purged from office and factory. But I am sure that, for a time, we must put a stop to these cases where both husband and wife are working. It may be okay when there are jobs to burn, but right now about 9,000,000 people cannot find work and 3,000,000 families are being supported by public relief.

I feel very strongly that married women whose husbands insist upon keeping their jobs should resign. Even though there are two sides to the question, I think that under current conditions, if such husbands will not work at home, then the wives should get fired. If so, unemployment would drop by a full million tomorrow!

Murphy Promises Full Information On Strike Part

New Attorney General Will Tell Of Activities In 1937 Sit-Down Strikes

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Attorney General Frank Murphy today promised to furnish the senate judiciary committee with complete information regarding his role in the turbulent automobile workers sit-down strike in Michigan early in 1937.

At his first press conference in the spacious justice department chambers Murphy said he welcomes any questions the senate committee wishes to ask.

Avoids Discussion
Murphy carefully avoided any detailed discussion of his conduct as governor during the labor disputes, observing that when he appears before the senate committee in connection with confirmation of his appointment, it will be the first time he has chosen "to give my version."

To criticism that he conducted sit-down strikes at Flint, Murphy observed that the situation required handling considerably different from the breaking of the Boston police strike. He referred to the action of Calvin Coolidge who, while governor of Massachusetts, broke the strike of Boston police by calling out the militia.

Murphy concluded that he had not had time to study legislative proposals submitted to congress by his recently-resigned predecessor, Homer S. Cummings.

Steel Employment Shows Increase In Month Of November

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—More than 14,000 employees were added to the payrolls of the steel industry during November, raising the total employed in the industry to the highest level in eight months, the American Iron and Steel institute reported today.

A total of 450,000 employees were at work in the industry during November, as against 436,000 in October and 351,000 in November, 1937, the institute said.

Monthly payrolls in November also increased materially over October, despite the smaller number of working days. Total steel payrolls for November 1938 amounted to $61,054,000, compared with $58,176,000 in the month before and $62,119,000 in November, 1937.

The Human Side Of The News (By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1939 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Eighteen years ago one of the great Presidents of the United States took the long, long trail—Theodore Roosevelt. And on this day, the anniversary of his passing, it is worth while, I think, to survey the milestones of his amazing and tempestuous career. In poor health and troubled with weak eyesight, he was a rancher in the Territory of Dakota in the 80's.

The cowboys made a great deal of fun of the Eastern dude who didn't smoke or drink and who peered through thick-lensed spectacles as he talked in high-pitched tones. But the cowpunchers came to adore him to the last man because they quickly learned what stuff there was in him: A reformer in the State Legislature, Lieut.-Col. of the Rough Riders, San Juan Hill.

Of all his experiences in his crowded and exciting career, his happiest adventure was with the Rough Riders. Vice President of the United States by an accident of politics, President by the bullet of an assassin and again by his own vast popularity with the people. Builder of the Panama Canal. Creator of a strong foreign policy. Father of the modern navy and a new naval efficiency. Enemy of unfair monopoly. True friend of the under-privileged to the day of his death.

Perhaps his greatest hour was that day he returned from his hunting trip to Africa. Practically every important figure in the land was on hand to greet him when he sailed up the Hudson River to the thunder of the guns of the fleet and the roaring acclaim of a million people. It was in 1915 that the politicians, who hated him, tried to smash him with a libel suit brought by the most powerful Republican leader in the State of New York: William Barnes of Albany against Theodore Roosevelt of the United States.

able witness I ever saw under cross-examination, he turned them aside with utter ease. Elihu Root had warned them. When William M. IVINS, counsel for Mr. Barnes, accused Roosevelt of being a corrupt boss, boasted that he was going to nail Roosevelt's hide to the fence, wise old Elihu Root said to IVINS: "Let me give you a piece of advice. I know Roosevelt, and you want to be very sure that it is Roosevelt's hide you get on the fence."

As Elihu Root foresaw, it was not Roosevelt's hide that was nailed to the fence. The hide belonged to Mr.

Barnes of Albany. Then the great war, his efforts to accuse his countrymen and his own deep personal disappointment at being refused permission to lead American troops in action.

Not many months were left to Theodore Roosevelt after the war ended. Jungle fever, caught along the Brazilian River of Doubt, now El Rio Roosevelt, had wrecked his vitality. When Quentin, his young-est, was killed in air-fighting behind the German lines, the blow well-nigh crushed his spirit. The change was tragic to his eyes when he went out to see him at Custer Bay. It was in his library there that he wrote his tribute to Quentin, his fading sight dim with tears:

"Only those are fit to live who do not fear to die. And none are fit to live who must have shrunk from the joy of life. Both life and death are parts of the same great adventure."

He would most certainly have been renominated for President in 1920 and as certainly re-elected, but it was not in the cards of fate. On the wintry Sunday night of January Fifth, 1919, he was very weary and in great pain. He said to James Amos, his valet, "Don't you think I might go to bed now?" That was his way of asking for the aid of James' arm. James had almost to lift him into bed.

Mrs. Roosevelt was in and out, and about eleven o'clock kissed him goodnight. The house was lit entirely by old-fashioned lamps. Just after she left the room, he said: "James, will you please put out the light." His last words.

James Amos turned out all the lamps except one, which cast a very dim glow. Four after but he sat, watching by the bedside. At about four in the morning the ex-President's breath quickened, then slowed, then stopped forever. His eyes were closed. His face was perfectly at peace.

That very morning the private train of the King of Italy halted at the station in Modena. The newspaper men left their car to stretch their legs on the station platform. Glancing through a window of the royal coach, they saw a telegraph messenger deliver a cablegram to the distinguished personage whose triumphant tour of Italy they were reporting. They watched emotions ripple over his face as he read the message—surprise, pity, then something unathomable.

The cablegram, a sheet of blue flimsy, fluttered unregarded to the floor of the coach, as the man who had read it stared into space. The news of the death of Theodore Roosevelt had come to Woodrow Wilson.

If you say a person is "ordinary," you are disparaging him to a certain extent. But if you call him "ordinary" or "ornery," you express contempt, although these words are corruptions of the term "ordinary." The corrupted terms came originally from England and Ireland.

Planning To Fill Church Pastorate

STUEBENVILLE, O., Jan. 6.—Bishop Beverly D. Tucker of the Ohio Episcopal diocese planned to come to Steubenville for conferences preparatory to filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. Harold C. Zeis, rector of St. Paul's church.

Rev. Zeis, who was named defendant in a $100,000 breach of promise suit in which Mrs. Cora L. Burham, 43-year-old New York divorcee, obtained a $10,000 verdict in federal court last March, resigned his pastorate effective Feb. 1.

Ambridge High Will Come Here To Try And Dislodge Locals From Top Rung

Reserve Teams Will Play Preliminary Game At 7:15, Arena Scene Of Game

New Castle High School basketball team is ready for its second Section Three battle of the year, tonight, at the Arena floor and will have the strong Ambridge High team as opponent.

The game tonight at the Arena located on Grove Street next to Orr's playground, should be one of the finest of the year. It is no secret that Ambridge and Coach Moe Rubenstein are silently eyeing the crown worn by New Castle High and they would like nothing better than to be Pitt stadium bound next March.

Having kicked Beaver Falls into submission 31 to 26 in the opening game of the section last Tuesday, the "Bridgers" will present their strongest possible array of talent here this evening. In Narkevich and Papasodero the valley quintet will show two high scoring men, in the game against Beaver Falls the two boys in mention accounted for 18 of the points. Not a bad evening's evening.

New Castle looked very good in jumping a 32 to 20 pasting on the New Brighton Crusaders Tuesday and if the locals can maintain their stride tonight, they will more than likely be ahead of the Rubensteinians when the final votes are counted.

Locals Look Good
New Castle has a few slick scorers for presentation too in Bombyk and Wenda two boys who have played remarkable basketball to date. So has Adamo and Clark, not to mention "Raggy" Gennock and Dave "Semi-Pro" Green. In fact the New Castle team did very well in the pre-season games, downing Parrell, Meadville and Erie Academy, while they lost two to Ford City and lost to Sharon.

The preliminary game should be a good one and will provide some entertainment until the big game starts. The prices for the league games will be the same as for the pre-season games—15 cents for students, 25 cents general admission and 35 cents for reserved seats.

Following are the probable line-ups:
New Castle Ambridge
Clark F Zajakowski
Gennock F Papasodero
Bombyk C Kamm
Wenda G Kubec
Lauro G Narkevich

TWO MORE GIANTS SIGN CONTRACTS

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Two more Giants sent in their contracts today. They are John Wittig, young right-hander, who is tabbed for plenty of work in the Giant's bullpen, and first baseman Johnny McCarthy, who may be sold or traded in the near future.

Hint to statement: Cash can buy support for a bad idea, but the idea hasn't a friend left when the cash plays out.

At Pittsburgh, Thursday night the local blond floor wizard split the cords for seven field goals and four fouls as the Frosh downed the Geneva Reserves 50-25. To date, the Duke Freshies have lost but one tussle, that to the local Gersons.

Brothers On Titan Team

FRANK AND JOSEPH METRA

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Jan. 6.—Rapidly working their way into the ranks of varsity-class on Coach Grover Washbaugh's Westminster Titan cage-squad are brothers, Frank and Joseph Metra. J. Metra has developed this year into a fast-moving forward, and Brother Frank is right at his heels. Both men will see action Saturday night against Slippery Rock, on the New Wilmington floor, in the third game of the season for the Titans, who now have a 41-33 win over Geneva and a 43-41 victory over the Carnegie Tech five.
Saturday night's game is called for 8:15 in the Titan gym; and after a week-end rest, Westminster engages an old rival, Grove City, on their home-floor Tuesday night, January 10.

MADONNA CHOIR WINS
The Madonna Choir basketball team won from the St. Phillips and James Choir team 40 to 30, with Przylyski the leading scorer, followed by Telesz, Smialowski and Kwoliek.

There ought to be a big crowd at Westminster, Saturday night, when Slippery Rock clashes with the Titans. The Rockets already have won two games, one over Buffalo and the other from Clarion. During Saturday afternoon the Rockets aquatic team will meet Case at Slippery Rock. The Rockets team lost a swimming meet to Buffalo college but won from Westminster.

The Arena hockey team and the New Castle Dragons battled to a 3-3 deadlock last night at the Arena rink in a sizzling contest. Both teams scored in the first period. The Dragons forged ahead in the second period, and kept the lead in the third period when both sides scored.

With the score 3 to 2 against them the Arena team knotted the count in the fourth and final period of the game.

Shenango High, New Wilmington To Play Tonight

Undeclared Class B. Rivals Play For Section 20 Lead On Shenango Floor

BESSEMER PLAYS EAST BROOK FIVE

Two arch rivals—New Wilmington and Shenango Township high—swish nets tonight on Shenango floor, in one of the crucial Section 20 clashes of the season.

Both teams will take the floor with a fat string of victories and no defeats. New Wilmington's rangy and veteran edition, tabbed the point-a-minute team, has disposed of such foes as Fredonia, Youngstown, Hickory, Mt. Jackson, Alumn and East Brook. "Lefty" Minner, Frew and Newton, better than six feet in height, set the pace for the college towners. This season's club ranks with the greatest cage outfits turned out at New Wilmington high.

East New Castle fans are all agog about their "Wildcat" aggregation which has thumped Evans City twice, Union and Wampum. In Francis Pitzer, Shenango boasts of one of the cleverest sphere handlers in District Class B. circles. Fredricks, Ovis, Dunn and B. Pitzer complete an array of sparkling basket makers. The game shapes up as one of the classiest attractions of the season in Section 20 circles. The winners grab the leadership of the section. The set follows a preliminary tussle starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Completing one of the most appealing attractions of the week is the Bessemer-East Brook conflict at Bessemer and Mt. Jackson's invasion of Wampum. Bessemer is also undefeated. Union Township enjoys an idle period.

WILL PLAY SUNDAY

It was announced today that Sunday afternoon the famous New Kensington Falcons, conquerors of the local Booster team, will meet the K. Pulaski Big Five at the K. P. hall. In the preliminary game the K. P. Reserves will meet the Kensington Reserves. The first game starts at 2:15 o'clock.

Rambling Around World Of Sports

Local sport stuff . . . New Castle and Ambridge high top the bill of fare in Section 3 circles here tonight. . . . Ambridge, one of the favorites to cop the banner, thumped Beaver Falls in magnificent fashion while the Ganes handled Aliquippa in great style on Tuesday night. . . . Moe Rubenstein, pilot of the Bridgers, has the best club in 10 years. . . . The game looms as one of the best attractions of the season. . . . No doubt, The Arena will be jammed for the encounter.

There's plenty of talk about that foul shooting exhibition put on by Westminster's Titans Wednesday night on Carnegie Tech's hardwood. . . . Coach Washbaugh's aggregation stepped to the charity mark 22 times and connected 19 times. . . . District scribes have been looking high and low for a better mark. . . . So far, none has been uncovered. . . . Westminster proved once again that foul shooting is not a lost art but one of the important phases of the game. . . . The 19 Annie Oakleys gave the smooth clicking Lawrence countians a 43-41 triumph, the first setback suffered by the Flaid. . . . As far as is known, the spectacular foul shooting exhibition by the Titans is a new district collegiate mark.

Bits of this and that . . . Dick Siebert, first sacker for the Philadelphia Athletics, spends the winter months coaching the Concordia college basketball team. . . . "Bob" Zupke, whose Illinois team battles Southern California out the coast next fall, scouted the Trojans State Year's Day. . . . Michigan State basketball players start their practice sessions with a quarter-mile jaunt—that being the distant between dressing rooms in the gymnasium to the playing court. . . . Torchy Peden says the worst enemy of a six-day bike rider is spare time.

Odd and ends . . . Wellington, Colo., home town of "Whizzer" White, has a population of only 533 persons. . . . Radio stations will pay close to a million and half to broadcast major league games during the '39 season. . . . The Shriners' Children hospital, San Francisco, got close to $50,000 out of the East-West game, New Year's Day. . . . Under the magic wand of Fritz Crisler, Michigan football during 1938 was a worthy venture—$90,000 profit to be exact. . . . Monty Stratton still insists he'll be able to take his turn on the mound with the help of an artificial leg. . . . Something special: Each Brooklyn Dodge hurler pegging more than 15 mound victories in '39 will receive a bonus of $100.

Sport tattle . . . This nag Seabiscuit better quit eating. Since his victory over War Admiral, the Biscuit has put on 50 pounds. . . . The greatest boss of the year has a double chin which would have done him lots of good in those two Santa Anita affairs which he lost by a whisker. . . . Football players are born young in Texas. For instance, the Texas Christian team age average was 20, six of the huskies being under 18. . . . No wonder lot of coaches are moaning about the point after touchdown. Statistics show that better than 40 per cent of the college teams miss the conversion.

WOULD LIKE GAMES
The St. Vitus team of the New Castle Church league would like to book games with all fast teams in the city and county. Games are wanted with the following towns: Ellwood City, Bessemer, Hillsville, East Brook, Wampum or Mt. Jackson. For games, see or write to John Morgan at 820 South Jefferson street.

Pittsburgh Boy Meets Apostoli In Ring Tonight!

Billy Conn, Pittsburgh Favorite
Will Battle Recognized Middleweight King

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Fred Apostoli, the former San Francisco bellhop who is recognized as world's middleweight champion in this state goes after bigger game tonight when he will attempt to hand eight or ten pounds and a beating to Billy Conn, Pittsburgh light-heavyweight, over the 10-round route at Madison Square Garden. The betting odds are 2 to 1 Apostoli will succeed. He probably will weigh 161 and Conn 168 or 170.

The betting has been exceptionally heavy on this fight. One of those who like Conn's chances is Barney Ross, former lightweight and welterweight champion, who took $100 worth of the short end. Many experts have the still-growing Irishman from Pittsburgh tabbed as the next light-heavyweight champion even if he fails to defeat Apostoli.

Apostoli doesn't mind giving away weight. Only the intervention of friends prevented him from taking a punch at Tommy Farr, the British heavyweight, in the gym the other day. Farr had aroused Fred's ire by using the latter's punching bag as a football.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Jan. 6.—Designation of A. J. Boyle, of Charleston, W. Va., as president to finance a proposed $500,000 racing track and club at nearby Arroyo, W. Va., was disclosed here today.

Weighted Body Is Found In Quarry

(International News Service)
MARYSVILLE, O., Jan. 6.—A diver found the weighted body of Clark S. Hayes, 28-year-old grocery clerk who disappeared on his wedding eve, on the bottom of an abandoned stone quarry nine miles northwest of Marysville, Thursday.

Hayes disappeared Tuesday afternoon after he and Miss Oletha Morrow, 28, a clerk in the same store, had rented a home and completed arrangements for the next day.

Officers at first believed Hayes' truck had been forced from the highway by robbers, but a search of the recovered vehicle revealed $47 he had collected for his employer and $100 with which Hayes had planned to buy furnishings for his new home.

Local Men Are Called In Probe

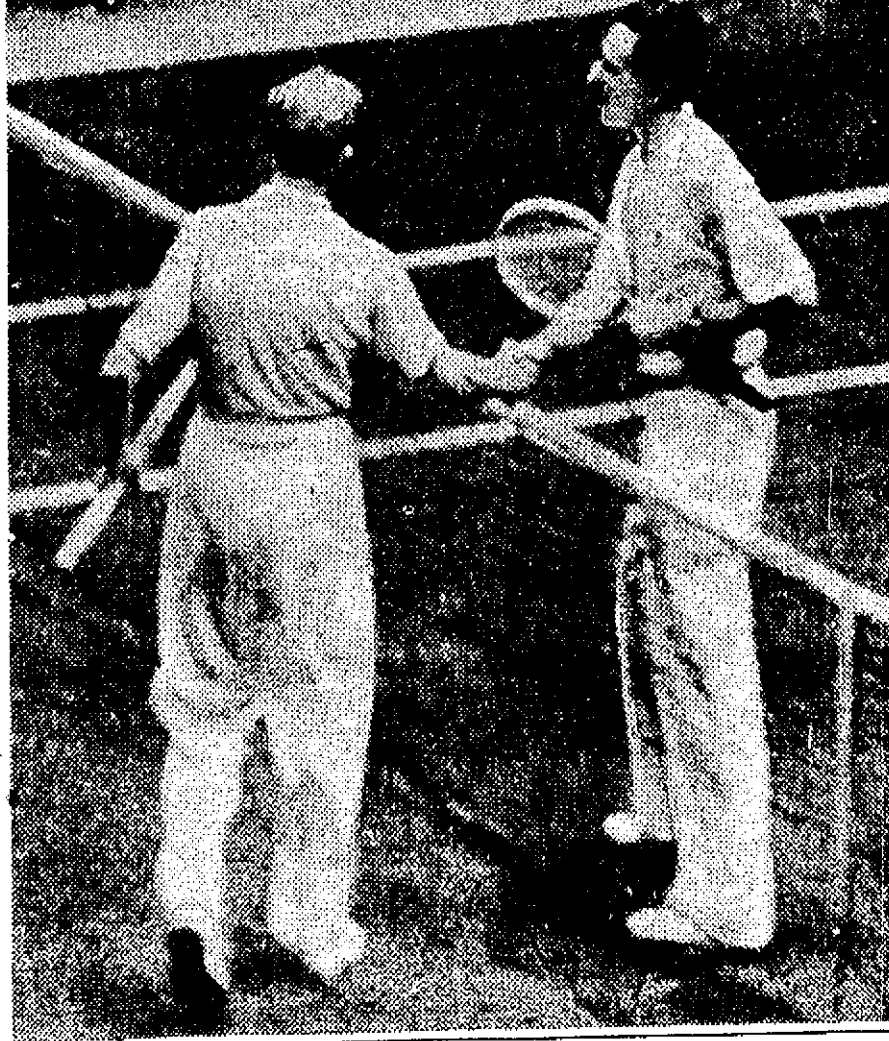

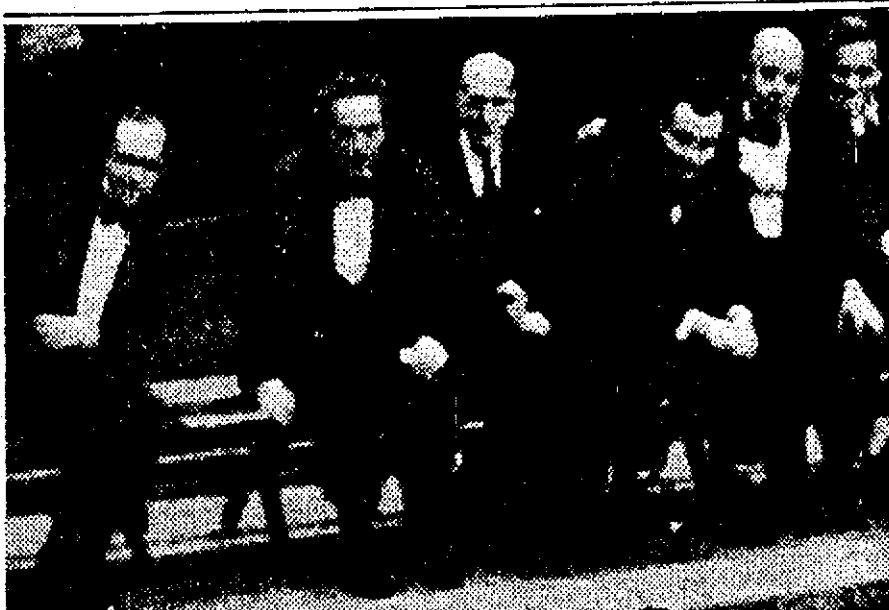

Four Lawrence county men, all of them engaged in the stone business, were called before the Dauphin county grand jury Thursday, January 5, to testify in the investigation into the conduct of a number of state officials.

The four were Walter W. Duff, Elwood Gilbert, both of New Castle, and F. O. Earnshaw and Joseph H. Jackson of Hillsville. Their testimony was in executive session.

At the meeting of the Lawrence County Referees' association last night Henry MacNicholas, assistant general secretary of the "Y," was named to act as commissioner of the association and Austin Cowmeadow was elected to the secretary and treasurer post. Jack Mottinger is the president of the association.

We call the Mississippi river the "father of waters", but the Parana river (South America) discharges twice as much water, and it is small compared to the Amazon and its tributaries, which constitute the greatest water system on earth.

Farm Committee Assumes Office

Agricultural Conservation Committee Prepares To Administer Program

With the beginning of the new year the recently elected Lawrence County Agricultural Conservation committee assumed office. The committee was selected by the participating farmers of the county to administer the program locally during 1939.

The committee is composed of the following farmers:

Dorris L. Fulkman, chairman; Harry L. McCarley, vice chairman; Frank F. Forbes, member, and W. C. Hileman and Frank T. Frew, first and second alternates, respectively.

In pointing out that the present farm program offers farmers a real opportunity to further the aims of agriculture, the committee urged all county farmers, particularly those who have not participated in past programs, to get in touch with the county agricultural conservation office to learn how they may cooperate in this year's program. The office is located at 427 Court Street.

Under the 1939 program, as last year, the committee stated, farmers may earn payments for sending certain crops within acreage allotments established by the county committee and for carrying out a prescribed number of units of soil-building practices, such as seedings of legumes and grasses, improving pastures, etc.

'Downtown Hike' Is Daily Job To Man Who Checks Meters

So that New Castle's 437 parking meters will always be "in the pink" of operation, City Meter Inspector George P. Smith walks eight miles through the downtown daily—rain or shine.

Smith, who has been "fathering" the curb meters since November 1, checks the 437 twice a day. Each gets scrutiny. He covers four miles in the morning and four in the afternoon. Each trip takes him about one hour and 15 minutes.

"No, I haven't been finding any trouble with them," Smith commented today. "Yesterday No. 812 went out of operation—but, as usual, we found a slug in it. That jams the meter and it won't work. But we find very few slugs."

What with his extra walking to and from home, Inspector Smith figures he hikes 10 miles a day. He's measured the distance by automobile.

"But, walking makes you feel good," he added.
